

Silverwork Herdwick Heat Pad

Date 23 September 2022
10am - 4 pm

Cost - £70 includes some great tuition, a stunning venue and a tasty 2 course lunch with home baked bread and cake. Tea and coffee throughout the day.

Additional material fee: £25 for a 'kit' of everything you need to create an embroidered heat beg

If you have any special access/food allergies or disability requirements, please contact us by email: info@cowshedcreative.co.uk

Course Description:

Learn to embroider your own Herdwick sheep or Tup from an expert, using a range of Goldwork techniques. You will be working directly onto British boiled wool and at the end of the session will be familiar with the application and limitations of working with metallic thread whilst creating a stylish, environmentally friendly cherrystone heat pad.

All levels of stitchers are welcome, for this inclusive and relaxing workshop. The kit you will receive comes with everything you need to finish your embroidered heat bag.

Sara Dennis gained a first-class degree in Art History and Museum Studies from Lancaster University. She graduated from the Royal School of Needlework Future Tutor Programme in 2017 winning the Outstanding Achievement Award. Now settling in Lancaster, she remains drawn towards the ethnic and eclectic. As well as Day Classes, the Certificate and Diploma, Summer Intensive Certificate and Degree modules at Hampton Court Palace and Williamsburg, VA for The Royal School of Needlework, Sara has also taught at the Victoria & Albert Museum, The British Library and The Royal Free Hospital. She is the textile expert on The Repair Shop (BBC 1). Sara enjoys curating various exhibitions and volunteers at Lancaster Priory. She is a director of Farfield Mill, Sedbergh. She has a studio in Lancaster Castle

What to bring:

Glasses if you need them
Cash to pay tutor for material pack